CONSIDER THIS.....Love is generally described in newspapers, magazines and on radio and television as a connection between two people who find themselves attracted to each other. Television and movies would have us believe that sex and glamour are always the main ingredients of love. Most of us know that these two ingredients are associated more with lust than love.

If you have young children the only exposure to love they may experience could be what they see within your family and what they are exposed to on TV. Even though your family will demonstrate the true meaning of love the media will bombard your children with lies and false impressions of love.

Consider how love is described in the Great Book..... Love suffers long and is kind; love does not envy; love does not parade itself, is not puffed up; does not behave rudely, does not seek its own, is not provoked, thinks no evil, does not rejoice in iniquity, but rejoices in the truth, bears all things, endures all things..... Love never fails. 1 Corinthians 13:4-8
